News of the Clubs

Women's City Club.—Mrs. Laura A. Bradley will be hostess at the directors' reception this afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock. Assisting her will be Mrs. Basil M. Manly, Miss Ida May Moyer, Miss Karoline Klager, Miss Sarah Beall, Mrs. Florence Scott and Miss Veronica Tegetoff. Several musical numbers will be rendered by Mrs. Steele.

The business and professional women's sections will hold a short meeting on Wednesday evening, after which Miss Jessie Dell will relate some of her experiences as a business woman on a recent visit to France for the government. Mrs. Nellie L. Pennington, vice chairman, will preside.

Thursday afternoon program will be in charge of Mrs. Mary D. C. Johnson, with music downstairs and cards on the second floor. Dinner at 6:30. Reservations to be made by Wednesday afternoon.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Margarita Spalding will give an advance reading of her story, "The Harpers, 'To Meet His Majesty'." Miss Mary E. Shick will be chairman.

Miss Janet Richards represented the club at the hearings before the House Judiciary committee and made an able argument in favor of suffrage for the District.

Les Precieuses Ridicules met Wednesday evening at the home of its president, Edward Becker, where his eighty-second birthday anniversary was celebrated by the annual celebration of the old French custom of the Tambou. Each member brought a small gift. After the election of Rene Van Crombrughe as vice president and of two new members, Mrs. Lelton and Miss Desnoyer, and the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting by Mrs. Seip, the following program was given:

Recitation, written and recited by M. Jean Labat, in honor of Mr. Becker, "Elegie," by M. Becker, "Berceuse de Jocelyn," by Goddard; (c) "Romance," by Monton, and (d) "Reveille," by Schumann. (a) "Love's Dream," (b) "Iceberg," by McDowell, and (c) "Soaring," by Schumann. Recitation by Mr. Becker, entitled "A Cinquante Ans," by Beranger. Songs rendered by Mrs. Gibbs, accompanied by Mrs. Desnoyer. (a) "Vers Avenir des Allies," by Hahn, and (c) "Les Deux Baiser," by Cham. In the piano numbers of "Russian Suite," by Friml, Mrs. Simpson. Recitation by Mr. Lazard in honor of Mr. Becker's birthday.

The evening closed by the entire club singing "Madelon," led and directed by Mr. Labat, after which supper was served.

The District of Columbia Chapter of Daughters and of Founders and Patriots of America held its December meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. S. Whitely, Mrs. Mary C. Beach was the assisting hostess. Two new members were admitted to the chapter. After the business meeting a social hour was spent. In the absence of the president, Mrs. De Wolf, Mrs. Beach presided.

The Readers' Club will give a Greek program, in the auditorium of the Corcoran Gallery of Art on Tuesday evening. The main feature of the program is an act from "When the Gods Were Young," a play written by a club member, Miss Ada Louise Townsend. Dr. Mitchell Carroll will speak on the Greek Theater, and the orchestra of the Washington College of Music, Prof. Christiani directing, will open the program. Members taking part are: Prof. C. S. Richardson, Miss Lenore de Grange, Miss Estelle Murray, C. E. Ruebsam, John Waudby and Mrs. Mabel Owens Wilcox. Admissions will be by card.

Friendship Nursery Aid Club, which meets tomorrow, will be quite an innovation, in that it will be held at the Blue Triangle House, North Capitol and E streets. Instead of at the home of a member. The meeting will be further distinguished by having as its speaker and guest of honor, Commissioner Boardman. The hostesses will be Mrs. Waterman, Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. Carden, Mrs. Nielsen, Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. La Petra, Mrs. Atkinson and Mrs. Meritt. Mrs. Frank L. Tower is the president.

The club had a successful Christmas party at Friendship House, in which a group of the children at the house took part, singing Christmas carols.

Dolly Madison Chapter, D. A. R., met Tuesday evening, at the residence of Mrs. Wilbur F. Dales. The regent, Mrs. Richard Claughton, presided. The revised by-laws were discussed and acted upon. The delegates and alternates for the coming congress were elected. After the routine business was over the historian read an article by Mrs. G. M. Minor on "Pilgrim Mothers."

Petworth Woman's Club.—The literary committee met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Baden. Mrs. Russ read a paper on "Lady Augusta Gregory" and Mrs. Phelps gave a reading of her play, "Spreading the News."

McKinley Circle, No. 2, Ladies of G. A. R., met Monday evening. Three new members were initiated and reports giving a resume of the year's work were read by the secretary and treasurer. Officers for the ensuing year were installed by Past President Mrs. Asenath J. Case: President, Miss C. B. Milligan; senior vice president, Mrs. Martha Elmore; junior vice president, Mrs. Belle Gibson; secretary, Mrs. Lella Cummings; treasurer, Miss Susie Kunsman; chaplain, Mrs. Cora A. Brown; conductor, Miss Victorine E. Johnson; assistant conductor, Mrs. Flora S. Edwards; guard, Mrs. Mary J. Milligan; assistant guard, Mrs. Asenath J. Case; patriotic instructor, Mrs. Laura Tracey Hunt; and registrar, Mrs. Genevieve Thompson. After the installation ceremony the members and friends were entertained socially with refreshments, music and dancing.

College Women's Club.—Miss Julia Stinson, U. S. A., will be the speaker at the regular tea at the College Women's Club tomorrow afternoon. She will describe the work of the Army Nurses' Corps. Mrs. Frank G. Wilkins, at the tea table, will be assisted by Mrs. MacCall Kerbey, Miss Margaret Motter and Miss Nancy Sibbey Wilkins. There will be a dance at the clubhouse Saturday, January 22, at 8 p.m.

The Dahlgren Terrace Thursday Club held its first annual dinner January 6 at the home of the president, Mrs. A. C. Proctor. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Duffies, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Kates, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Kingsbury, Dr. and Mrs. F. M. McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Rowzie, Mr. and Mrs.

Mrs. Emig, Mrs. Sloan, Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Naele, refreshment committee. Mrs. Ray and Mrs. Wood, Miss Bell Van Ness, historian, reported on the death of the committee of the hands of the printers.

C. A. R.—The national board of management met Thursday in Memorial Continental Hall, Mrs. Frank W. Mondell presiding. Appointment of six local presidents and one state director were confirmed. Resolutions were adopted on the death of Mrs. Mary Eleanor Brown, late national corresponding secretary. National officers presented reports.

Federation of Women's Clubs.—The clubhouse committee met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. P. P. Clayton, when many of the clubs in the District were represented. Mrs. Eugene Pitcher reported on available property. Mrs. Clayton, chairman, and Mrs. Deeds, Mrs. Glennon and Mrs. Harry Churchill Cook members of the committee.

Twentieth Century Club.—The nature section, Mrs. William H. Herron, leader, will meet Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the College Women's clubrooms, 1822 I street. Dr. H. C. Oberholser will deliver lecture on "Birds." Mrs. Thomas W. Sidwell will be the hostess.

An invitation to the officials of the telephone company for Monday evening at 8 o'clock to inspect their work at 12th and streets has been extended to the members through its civic section. To accept the invitation are requested to send in their names by telephone to Mrs. Arthur Deering Call, secretary of the civic section, 3512 New street, as refreshments are to be served.

A large meeting of the civic section, Mrs. Walter S. Ufford, presiding, held Thursday morning at the home of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae, when Mrs. George Putnam, Mrs. Albert B. Bushnell were appointed by the president, Mrs. Lyman Swormstedt, to serve on the charter and endorsement committee of the District. Reports were made by chair of committees on housing, house economics, District suffrage bills in Congress relating to District affairs. Newbold Noyes gave a report on the proposed council for agencies in the District. Lunch followed adjournment.

District D. A. R.—The chapter held Tuesday night a social hour at the home of Mrs. Walter S. Ufford, to discuss plans for a clubhouse in Washington. Mrs. Ellen Spence followed adjournment.
